

ACLS Newsletter – Summer 2017

Update on Single Quality Framework Project

Many thanks to our clients who provided feedback on the draft mapping of the ACLS learning activities to the draft Single Aged Care Quality Standards. We have used this feedback and other industry consultation to amend the first draft.

New Learning Activities

Work is well underway on the new Falls, Delirium and Management of the Deteriorating Older Person learning activities. We plan to have Falls and Delirium ready for preview by early January.

New LMS Functionality - Resources

Due to go live in March 2018 Resources will provide an additional point of access to a range of learning for your workforce and support resources for managers.

- The ACLS Look and Act Toolkits – accessible on all devices including mobile phone, tablet and desktop
- Links to clinical guidelines, latest research, industry updates and other information of interest
- Annual learning programs
- Learning activity posters

Resources will also house all of the web references from every learning activity, curated to provide easily access to additional learning at any time.

2018 Annual Program Information

As per our email sent in early November the 2018 program will be split – January to June and July to December to allow for any adjustments by the Quality Agency to the Single Aged Care Quality Framework Standards.

We have attached the updated list of learning activities and highlighted the learning activities that will be available in the first half of the year.

If you wish to have a custom program for 2018 and have not yet provided the January to July schedule of learning activities to us please do so by the 14th December.

Festive Season Reduced Hours

Aged Care Learning Solutions will be operating reduced services from Monday 18th December to January 7th 2018.

Please send all emails to info@agedcarelearningsolutions.com.au
